My ancestors were from Gowidlino Poland, I was wondering if anybody knows any websites or has information on this region of Poland and if there are any websites that have pictures of Gowidlino.

Thanks
janice

Hello!
1.Before 1866 Gowidlino belonged to Parish Sierakowice , now it is a separate parish
2.Today Gowidlino belongs to Sierakowice commune, so if you would like today to take more information about Gowidlino (some photos etc.) please visit this site: http://www.sierakowice.pl
3.We haven't indexes from metrical books from Parish Gowidlino in this time,maybe we will start to do these indexes soon

Thanks for the information. In your post you wrote that some of the records from Gowidlino are not indexed. I have found lots of my ancestors in the database from Sierakowice parish up to 1884. My aunt about ten years ago hired someone from Poland and he came up with a few records back then that I have not been able to find in the database. They are transcribed and on top they say Smolnik and I notice that some of the witnesses were from resident of Smolnik. Is this a reason why I probably am not finding records in the database because they are located in another parish other than Sierakowice? If this is the case do you know what parish I might be able to start looking in that could possibly be on microfilm of these records.

Thanks
Janice
