Hi, I see that you want info for the Ossowcki family. So do I. I have done a lot of research and I have control of all Ossowickis (except the youngest) in Sweden, Germany and Poland. They/we are all related to the same Bartholomaeus (Batlomiej) Ossowicki who once lived in and died in Tuchola 1845. I would like to see how he (we) are related to the polish Ossowickis so it would be nice to see where our families meet. I have unfortunately not been able to see how Bart is related to the other Ossowickis but there are many Ossowickis in Tuchola and somwhere there must be a connection. Bart was married to Victoria Dobek (1816-1893)and their son Mathias (Mathaus) was born in 1836 in Tuchola. I don't know if he had other siblings but I guess that he had since his dad died early but first when Mathias was 9 years old.I also know that Victoria remarried another man called Lazarek and that they got, I think, 5 children together. Mathias left Tuchola and moved to Stettin as young where he was also educated and where he met his wife. They got three children in Stettin and a fourth after that they had moved to Denmark. Their son Carl, my great grandfather moved to Sweden etc etc. It would be really interesting if you could find out how Barholomeaus Ossowicki is related to the other Ossowickis or do you know somebody else who knows? The online registers don't have any more info about him, e.g when he was born. I found out that he was Mathias father in a text document from the time when Mathias lived in Stettin. I would be very happy to receive an answer from you and even if you have no info maybe you know somebody else who does. Best regards, Jane in Sweden

Hi!
I am Jane Ossowicki (living in Sweden) and I am trying to map the Ossowicki family, first in Sweden, Germany and Denmark and then in Poland. I know where we all come from. We are related to one and the same person in Poland, Batholomaeus (Bartlomiej) who lived in Tuchola and died there appr. 40 years old in 1845 (13/9). He was married to Victoria Dobek (1816-1893). His son Mathias (1836-1918) moved to Stettin where he was also educated and where he met his wife and got three children. They moved to Copenhagen, Denmark and got a fourth child. I now wonder when Bartholomeus was born and if he had siblings. I know that he later got 5 half siblings. I also would like to know the name of his parents. I find NO trace of them in the registers I have access to.
It would really be interesting if we together could finally integrate our findings/family trees and see how we all are related. I would be VERY happy for the smallest contribution and I will be happy to share my own findings with you. Best regards, Jane
